LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks dur-

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.
Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(g.) No person shall use a power-boat or aeroplane to disturb any migratory game birds with the intent of driving such birds towards hunters.

(h.) No person shall excavate duck-shooting blinds, or sink casks, boxes, or other similar devices to serve as duck-shooting blinds, or use any such blinds for shooting black ducks, on the tidal flats of Goose Bay, of Little River Harbour, and of the other waters within a line drawn from Wedge Point southerly to Lobster Island; thence north-westerly to the north point of Tusket Island (locally known as Big Tusket Island); thence to the nearest point of Calf Island, along the easterly shore thereof to the northerly point thereof, and thence to Pinkney Point, in Yarmouth County, Nova Scotia; but duck-shooting blinds may be excavated or built at a distance of not more than twenty-five yards from channel-banks at low water for the purpose of shooting ducks other than black ducks within said area.

SCIENTIFIC PERMITS.

12. Migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds or parts thereof, or their eggs or nests, may be taken, bought, sold, shipped, transported, or possessed for scientific purposes, and said birds may be captured for banding purposes, but only on the issue of a permit by the Minister or by any person duly authorized by him.

Such permits may, upon application, be granted to recognized museums, scientific societies, and to any person furnishing written testimonials from two well-known ornithologists.

The return of specimens taken under such permits shall be made to the Minister upon the expiration of the permit.

PROPAGATION OF MIGRATORY BIRDS.

13. (a.) Migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or their eggs, protected under Regulations made pursuant to the "Migratory Birds Convention Act," may be taken at any time and in any manner for propagating purposes only on the issue of a permit by the Minister or by any person duly authorized by him. Migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds or their eggs so taken may be possessed by the permittee and may be sold and transported by him to any person holding a permit for propagating purposes issued by the Minister or by any person duly authorized by him.

(b.) A person authorized by a permit issued for propagating purposes under this Regulation may possess, buy, sell, or transport migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or their increase or eggs, for propagating purposes. Such migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, except the birds taken under paragraph (a) of this Regulation, may be killed by him in any manner except by shooting. The unplucked carcasses, or the plucked carcasses with heads attached thereto, of such birds may be sold and transported by the permittee to any person for consumption, or to the keeper of a hotel, restaurant, or boarding-house, or to a dealer in meat or game, or to a club for sale or service to their patrons, all of whom may possess such carcasses for actual consumption without a permit.

(c.) A person granted a permit under this Regulation shall keep books and records which shall correctly set forth at all times the total number of each species of migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds or their eggs taken or in his possession. A written report shall be furnished the Minister during the month of January next following the issuance of the permit. This report shall state the total number of each species reared and killed, the number of each species or their eggs sold and transported, the manner in which such species or eggs were transported, the name and address of each person from or to whom such species or eggs were purchased or sold, together with number and species and whether sold alive or dead; and the date of such transaction.

(d.) Applications for permits to take such birds for propagating purposes shall be accompanied by a statement showing:—

- (1.) The full name and post-office address of the applicant;
- (2.) The species of birds or eggs that it is desired to take;
- (3.) The number;
- (4.) The place at which the birds or eggs are to be taken.

Applications for permits to possess, buy, sell, or transport such birds for propagating purposes shall be accompanied by a statement showing:—

- (1.) The full name and post-office address of the applicant;
- (2.) The species and number of birds that it is desired to possess;
- (3.) The area and location of the land to be used in the business and whether owned or leased by the applicant.

(e.) The Minister may require an applicant to furnish a bond in support of his application for a permit for propagating purposes.

(f.) A permittee shall at all reasonable hours allow any game officer to enter and inspect the premises where operations are being carried on under these Regulations, and to inspect the books and records of such permittee relating thereto.

(g.) No person holding a permit for propagating purposes shall sell migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, raised and killed in captivity, unless the same shall bear a metal tag. This tag shall be of a type approved by the Minister and shall contain the seal number allotted to the holder of the permit. It shall not be removed from the carcass.

COLLECTING OF EIDERDOWN.

14. The Minister, or any person duly authorized by him, may issue permits allowing persons owning or leasing eider-duck breeding areas to collect, possess, transport, and sell eiderdown.

TERMINATION OF PERMITS.

15. All permits and licences shall terminate at the end of the calendar year in which they shall have been issued. They shall not be transferable and shall be revocable at the discretion of the Minister.

TAXIDERMISTS.

16. No person shall engage in the business of a taxidermist without having first secured from the Minister a licence so to do. The fee for this licence shall be one dollar.

No taxidermist shall receive, prepare for exhibition purpose, or possess any migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game bird, or any portion thereof, unless such bird has been legally killed, either in the open season for such birds or by the holder of a permit for taking birds for scientific purposes.

Every licensed taxidermist shall annually make such returns as the Minister may require.

Every licensed taxidermist shall keep books and records which correctly set forth the name of each migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game bird received, the date and locality of capture, the date received, and the name and address of the owner of such bird. These books and records are to be open to inspection by any game officer at any reasonable time.

SHIPMENT OF MIGRATORY BIRDS.

17. Any package in which migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds or parts thereof, or their eggs or nests, are shipped or transported shall be clearly marked on the outside with the name and address of the shipper and an accurate statement of the contents; and in the case of shipment or transportation of such migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds or parts thereof, or their eggs or nests, for scientific or propagating purposes, any package shall be clearly marked on the outside with the number of the permit, the name and address of the shipper, and an accurate statement of the contents.

No transportation company shall accept for transportation any package containing migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or their nests or eggs or parts thereof, unless such packages shall be marked as hereinbefore required; and shipment of the same through the mails is prohibited, unless marked as aforesaid.

18. The shipment or export of migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or their nests or eggs, from any Province during the close season in such Province is prohibited, except for scientific or propagating purposes; and traffic between Canada and the United States in any such birds, or their eggs, captured, killed, taken, or shipped at any time contrary to the laws of the Province or State in which the same are captured, killed, taken, or shipped, is likewise prohibited.

19. No person shall ship or offer for shipment from Canada to the United States any package containing migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or any parts thereof or their eggs, unless such package shall have the name and address of the shipper and an accurate statement of the contents clearly marked on the outside of such package.

No transportation company shall accept for transportation to the United States any packages of migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or any parts thereof or their eggs, unless such packages bear the name and address of the shipper and an accurate statement of the contents; and shipment of the same through the mails is prohibited, unless marked as aforesaid.

PROVISIONS RESPECTING DAMAGE BY BIRDS.

20. If any of the migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds should under extraordinary conditions become seriously injurious to agricultural, fishing, or other interests in any particular locality, the Minister, or any person duly authorized by him, may issue permits to kill such birds so long as they shall continue to be injurious. Applications for such permits shall include a full statement describing:—

- (1.) The species and an estimate of the numbers of birds committing the damage;
- (2.) The nature and extent of the damage;
- (3.) The extent of the agricultural or other interests threatened or involved.

Such permits shall be revocable at the discretion of the Minister. On the expiration of the permit the person to whom it is issued shall furnish to the Minister a written report showing the number of birds killed, the dates upon which they were killed, and the disposition made of the dead birds.

No birds killed under such permits shall be shipped, sold, or offered for sale.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS CONCERNING BIRDS CAUSING DAMAGE.

21. (a.) Any British subject domiciled in the Province of Quebec may capture by trapping or kill by shooting American and red-breasted mergansers within the Counties of Rimouski, Metane, Matapedia, Bonaventure, and Gaspé, Province of Quebec, on the south shore of the River St. Lawrence, and within the County of Saguenay, Province of Quebec, on the north shore of the Gulf and River St. Lawrence, from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset, from April 1st to August 31st, both dates inclusive: Provided that the birds so killed shall not be sold or offered for sale, or shipped or transported from one person to another, except that they may be shipped or transported as a gift to persons authorized by permits granted by virtue of clause 12 of these Regulations to take or possess such birds for scientific purposes.

(b.) Any Superintendent of Fish Hatcheries situated in the Province of Quebec, any salaried Provincial or Federal Game Officer duly appointed for that Province, or any owner or any lessee of fishing areas in that Province, the bona-fide employees of such owners or lessees, and the members of fishing clubs which lease fishing rights, may kill loons by shooting, within the Province of Quebec, from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset, from April 1st to October 31st, both dates inclusive: Provided that the birds so killed shall not be sold or offered for sale, or shipped or transported from one person to another, except that they may be shipped or transported as a gift to persons authorized by permits granted by virtue of clause 12 of these Regulations to take or possess such birds for scientific purposes.

(c.) Any British subject domiciled in the County of Saguenay, Province of Quebec, may kill great black-backed gulls by shooting within the County of Saguenay, Province of Quebec, from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset, from June 15th to October 31st, both dates inclusive: Provided that the birds so killed shall not be sold or offered for sale, or shipped or transported from one person to another, except that they may be shipped or transported as a gift to persons authorized by permits granted by virtue of clause 12 of these Regulations to take or possess such birds for scientific purposes.

(d.) The Minister may on any date between August 15th and September 14th, inclusive, issue a general permit, covering any one or more of the Provinces of Manitoba, Alberta, and Saskatchewan, which shall allow any owner or occupier of land in the Province named, having a cereal crop growing or in stook on his said land, to shoot on such land wild ducks which are found causing serious injury to such crop: Provided that wild ducks so killed shall not be sold or offered for sale, and that wild ducks shall not be shot at or killed outside of the area on which the crop is being so seriously injured:

Provided, further, that if the occupant or owner of the land finds it impossible to protect his crops thus himself, he may grant authority, in writing, to not more than one person to shoot thus wild ducks found to be doing serious damage to any cereal crops either growing or in stook, and he shall immediately notify the Game Commissioner of the Province in question of any such authorization, giving the name and address of the person so authorized and a description of the land on which the ducks are doing damage.

INTRODUCTION OF FOREIGN SPECIES.

22. No person or organization shall introduce for the purpose of sport or acclimatization any species of migratory birds without the consent of the Minister in writing.

DEFACING OF POSTERS.

23. No person shall destroy, deface, tear down, or damage maliciously, any posters, notice-boards, or signs erected to acquaint the public with any provisions of the "Migratory Birds Convention Act" or Regulations thereunder.

(l.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authority all rights, concessions, and privileges which may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(m.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, accept, sign, endorse, discount, or negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other negotiable instruments, bills of lading and other transferable documents, or to loan or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the Company or its assets, at present owned or hereafter acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, and negotiate debentures or debenture stock:

(n.) To buy, sell, manufacture, repair, alter, exchange, let on hire, import, export, and deal in all kinds of goods, articles, and things which may be required for the purposes of or commonly dealt in by persons engaged in or which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with the or any of the said businesses:

(o.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient or useful in connection with or incidental to any of its objects, and to make advances in cash, goods, or other supplies to other persons, companies, or firms, and to take and hold real and personal securities for the same:

(p.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise machinery, plant, equipment, and other personal property of every nature and description, lands, buildings, factories, workshops, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights in to or over the same or included therewith, rights-of-way, light, water, and other rights or privileges, business and trade secrets, and to use, hold, manage, operate, exchange, sell, rent, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with dispose of or turn to account the same or any portion thereof or any interest therein as may seem expedient:

(q.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, firm, or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such persons or company or any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or shares or debentures of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with, dispose of, or turn to account the same or any portion thereof:

(r.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of the Company or cash, as the Company may think fit:

(s.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise turn to account, deal with, or dispose of the property and rights of the Company or any part thereof of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, with power to accept shares, debentures, or securities in other companies, and, in the case of shares, either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration of the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(t.) To promote or assist in promoting any company or companies for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(u.) To undertake any liabilities of and take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of the business, property, or effects or the shares of any other company, association, firm, or person having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(v.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) and other companies which may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, authority, or companies any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable, and to hold, use, carry out, exercise, enjoy, and to comply with and, if deemed advisable, sell, transfer, assign, mortgage, lease, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the or any of the same or any interest therein:

(w.) To apply for, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, use, exercise, or develop, sell, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise deal with, dispose of, or turn to account any process, improvement, mechanism, or device, or any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, privileges, and the like, or any interest in the same, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions:

(x.) To sell any patent, rights, or privileges belonging to the Company or which may be acquired by it or any interest in the same, and to grant licences for the use and practice of the same or any of them, and to allow to be used or otherwise deal with or turn to account any invention, patent, or privilege in which the Company may be interested:

(y.) To contribute to or subsidize or otherwise assist, aid, or take part in any operations similar to the or any of the operations capable of being undertaken, carried on, or maintained by this Company, though undertaken, constructed, or maintained by any other person or company:

(z.) To borrow, raise, or secure payment of money, with or without powers of sale or other special conditions, in such manner or form and by such means as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property or any portion thereof, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or the acceptance, endorsement, or issuance of promissory notes and other negotiable instruments, and to mortgage and pledge any of the Company's assets, income, or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing the same, and to make, grant, and execute mortgages, bills of sale, bonds, debentures, or other securities for the same on security of the whole or any part of the property and assets belonging to the Company, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities or indebtedness:

(za.) ing of the Company's shares, debentures, or other securities, property or assets or any portion thereof, or assisting so to do, and to pay wages or salaries for services rendered in and about the formation of the Company or in or about the conduct of its business either in money or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in fully paid-up shares of the Company:

(zb.) To create, draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, bonds, obligations, warrants, debentures, debenture stock, and other negotiable and transferable instruments, documents, and securities:

(zc.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(zd.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(ze.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(zf.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others; provided that nothing in all the foregoing shall authorize the Company to exercise the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

(zg.) To do all such other acts, deeds, and things as the Company may deem to be necessary, incidental, instrumental, or conducive to the attainment of the or any of the Company's objects:

(zh.) It is expressly declared that the intention is that the objects set forth in the foregoing paragraphs shall be construed in the most liberal way, and shall in no way be limited or restricted by reference to any other paragraph or by any inference drawn from the terms of any other paragraph.

ventors or alleged inventors or persons having or purporting to have possession of any formulæ or secret process for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions for processes, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights or privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same or otherwise deal with or turn to account such patents or privileges as may be deemed expedient in the interest of the Company:

(g.) To insure and keep insured any property of the Company against loss, damage, risk, or liability of any kind, whether by the payment of premiums to any company, underwriters, or firm or persons, or by becoming a member of or subscribing to or forming any mutual insurance society or association:

(h.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purpose of the Company:

(i.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(j.) To act as agents for the purchase, sale, improvement, development, management, and dealing with the property and business concerns and undertakings, and generally to transact and undertake all kinds of agency business:

(k.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary to enable the Company to carry on business outside of the Province:

(l.) To pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, or concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(m.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or persons, partnership, association, or corporation, and to consolidate with or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To raise or borrow money and secure the repayment of money in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(o.) To draw, accept, and make, and endorse, discount, and negotiate, bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable instruments:

(p.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(q.) To lend or advance money to the customers of and parties having dealings with the Company and to any other parties, and to give any guarantee for the payment of money or for the performance of any contract or obligation by any such customers or parties when any such loan, advance, or guarantee shall be considered conducive to the interests of the Company:

(r.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among the members in specie, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of the capital be made without the sanction of the Court where necessary:

(s.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects for which the Company is established or any of them; and so that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere, and so that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph:

(t.) To carry on any all of the branches or businesses of manufacturing, selling, and distributing proprietary, formulated, or compounded preparations, tonics, drugs, fumigants, disinfectants, fungicides, bacteriacides, insecticides, special, ordinary, and (or) general products, whether edible or otherwise, in any and every form permitted by law, by special or developed formulas and processes acquired or obtained in any proper manner, and to acquire by purchase, barter, trade, or any other method all or any necessary raw material or materials used or required in or necessary to carry on the business of said Company.

As the first operation of the Company, to acquire and take over as a going concern the business hitherto carried on by Campbell Blakely McNeill at 318 Homer Street, Vancouver, together with the whole of the real and personal property of the said C. B. McNeill used in connection therewith or belonging thereto, and to undertake and satisfy all or any of the liabilities of the said business:

(e.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(f.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(g.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(h.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(i.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any company, wheresoever incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to sell or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(j.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(k.) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(l.) To lend money to any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, having dealings with the Company or with whom the Company proposes to have dealings, and to guarantee the contracts of any such person or company:

(m.) To raise and assist in raising money for, and to aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, guarantee of debentures or other securities, or otherwise, any company, wheresoever incorporated, with which the Company may have business relations, and to guarantee the contracts of any such company:

(n.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company, wheresoever incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(o.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company:

(p.) To remunerate any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of or the sale or disposition of its business:

(q.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To carry on any business capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(s.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(t.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(u.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, fund, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(v.) To procure the Company to be registered and recognized in any foreign country or place, and to designate persons therein, according to the laws of such foreign country or place, to represent the Company, and to accept service for and on behalf of the Company of any process or suit:

(w.) To carry out all or any of the objects of the Company, and do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(x.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects and the exercise of the powers of the Company.

(29.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(30.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(31.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, State, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, State, or territory:

(32.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(33.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(34.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(35.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or guaranteeing any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(36.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(37.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(38.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

No. 11877.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Balco Estates, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 9th day of July, 1930.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares.

The address of its registered office is 808 Stock Exchange Building, 475 Howe Street, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire and take over any and all kinds of real estate, leases, and other interest in lands in the City of Vancouver and elsewhere in the Province of British Columbia, assuming all charges and liabilities which may exist against the said real estate, leases, or other interest in lands, and to pay the vendor, lessor, assignor, or other persons interested, for the same in cash or in shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares of the said Company:

(b.) To acquire tracts of land with the object of subdividing the same into lots and selling such lots when so subdivided:

(c.) Subject to paragraph (o) hereof, to carry on business as capitalists, financiers, concessionaires, and merchants, and to undertake and execute all kinds of financial and commercial trading and other operations, and to carry on any other business (except that of assurance) which may seem to be capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of these objects, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or facilitate the realization of, or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(d.) To purchase either outright or by agreement for sale, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any lands, leases, buildings, timber, mines, water rights, rights, or concessions in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any estate or interest therein and any rights connected therewith:

(e.) Subject to paragraph (o) hereof, to develop and turn to account any land or other property acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, pulling down, constructing, altering, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(f.) Subject to paragraph (o) hereof, to lend money with or without security and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to improve any of the Company's property or assets:

(g.) To borrow or raise or secure payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by mortgages and by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(h.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(i.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(j.) To remunerate any person or corporation for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(k.) To sell and dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to promote any other company for any purpose which may seem, either directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) Upon the sale of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company, to divide the proceeds thereof among the shareholders in specie:

(m.) To carry on business and do any of the things set out herein in any Province or any part of the Dominion of Canada or in any foreign country, and to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any Province or part of the Dominion of Canada and in any foreign country or place:

(n.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(o.) Provided that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any of the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act."

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in every paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company, and none of such paragraphs nor the objects therein specified or ancillary merely to the objects mentioned in the first paragraph of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first paragraph of this clause.

To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land or water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents, and to buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, merchandise, and freight of all kinds:

(5.) To purchase, lease, take by licence, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences or limits, grants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(6.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(7.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(8.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(9.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(10.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(11.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(12.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(13.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(14.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(15.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(16.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.

All those portions of Legal Subdivisions Thirteen and Fourteen of Section One and Legal Subdivision Four of Section Twelve, Township Seven, Range Seven, west of the seventh meridian, in Upper Hixon Creek, in the Province of British Columbia, shown as Parcel "G" on a plan of survey signed by D. J. McGugan, Dominion Land Surveyor, and approved and confirmed by F. H. Peters, Surveyor-General of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, on the nineteenth day of May, 1930, and of record in the Department of the Interior at Ottawa under Number 37158; the said parcel containing an area of eight acres and ninety-five hundredths of an acre, more or less.

All those portions of Legal Subdivisions Two, Three, Six, and Seven of Section Fifteen, Township Seven, Range Seven, west of the seventh meridian, surrounding Young Lake, in the Province of British Columbia, shown as Parcel "L" on a plan of survey signed by D. J. McGugan, Dominion Land Surveyor, and approved and confirmed by F. H. Peters, Surveyor-General of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, on the nineteenth day of May, 1930, and of record in the Department of the Interior at Ottawa under Number 37159; the said parcel containing an area of ten acres and ten-hundredths of an acre, more or less.

All those portions of Legal Subdivision Sixteen of Section Eleven, Legal Subdivision Thirteen of Section Twelve, Legal Subdivision Four of Section Thirteen, and Legal Subdivision One of Section Fourteen, Township Seven, Range Seven, west of the seventh meridian, surrounding Joseph Lake, in the Province of British Columbia, shown as Parcel "O" on a plan of survey signed by D. J. McGugan, Dominion Land Surveyor, and approved and confirmed by F. H. Peters, Surveyor-General of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, on the nineteenth day of May, 1930, and of record in the Department of the Interior at Ottawa under Number 37159; the said parcel containing an area of eleven acres and twenty-hundredths of an acre, more or less.

All those portions of Legal Subdivision Four of Section Eighteen, Township Seven, Range Six, west of the seventh meridian, and Legal Subdivisions Nine, Ten, Eleven, Thirteen, Fourteen, Fifteen, and Sixteen of Section Twelve, and Legal Subdivisions One, Two, and Three of Section Thirteen, Township Seven, Range Seven, west of the seventh meridian, surrounding Anne Lakes Nos. 1 and 2, in the Province of British Columbia, shown as Parcel "S" on a plan of survey signed by D. J. McGugan, Dominion Land Surveyor, and approved and confirmed by F. H. Peters, Surveyor-General of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, on the nineteenth day of May, 1930, and of record in the Department of the Interior at Ottawa under Number 37159; the said parcel containing an area of fifty-seven acres and ninety-hundredths of an acre, more or less.

The lands herein described contain by admeasurement together an area of one hundred and forty-five acres and ninety-seven hundredths of an acre, more or less.

The Committee concur in the foregoing recommendation and submit the same for approval.

(Signed) E. J. LEMAIRE,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

To the Honourable
the Minister of the Interior.

P.C. No. 1369.

CERTIFIED TO BE A TRUE COPY OF A MINUTE OF A MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL, APPROVED BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL ON THE 14TH JUNE, 1930.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report, dated 27th May, 1930, from the Minister of the Interior, submitting that application has been made to the Department of the Interior, on behalf of the Westminster Power Company, Limited, to lease certain lands in Townships 6 and 7, Range 7, west of the seventh meridian, in the Railway Belt in the Province of British Columbia, shown on plans of record in the Department of the Interior under Nos. 37158 and 37159 as Parcels "B," "C," "F," "H," "I," "J," "M," "P," and "Q," being site of penstock, dam-site, rights-of-way for tunnel and pipe-lines, comprising together an area of 79.80 acres, more or less, required in connection with the development of its power scheme.

The Minister, being of the opinion that this application should be given favourable consideration, recommends that authority be granted for the issue of a lease in favour of the Westminster Power Company, Limited, covering the aforementioned parcels, which are hereinafter described, for a term of twenty years, renewable at the discretion of the Minister, at a rental of one dollar per acre per annum; the said lease to become null and void in the event of the cancellation of the water rights by the Provincial authorities.
